

---

CODE OF CONDUCT

As a participant in a virtual WeCOACH Academy event, you are an integral member of the group of coaches that will be participating together. When you agree to attend the Academy, you understand that you are responsible for your actions and words during the Academy.

As a coach chosen to attend the Academy, you have significant responsibilities and shall conduct yourself in a manner that positively represents the values of all coaches and your university/school/organization. You should behave in a manner that reflects respect, integrity, and responsibility. This includes, but is not inclusive to, the standards stated below.

I will:

- Be an active participant and always conduct myself in a professional manner.
- Be punctual and attend each session in its entirety.
- Be respectful. I will choose my words carefully and respect others. WeCOACH aims to create an environment where people feel valued, productive, and have an opportunity to be their authentic selves
- Be inclusive. WeCOACH welcomes and supports people of all backgrounds and identities. This includes, but is not limited to, members of any sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, race, ethnicity, culture, national origin, social and economic class, color, educational level, immigration status, sex, age, size, family status, political belief, religion, and mental and physical ability.
- Remove distractions. In a virtual event, I understand that I am responsible for my physical environment. As much as possible, I will remove myself from any distractions out of respect for others and to create the best possible learning environment for myself.
- Abide by the dress code. In a professional virtual event, I understand that it is still important how I dress and present myself to others. Attire is business casual (unless otherwise designated). This may include your university/school/organization logo'd attire. Please do not wear workout gear, loungewear or hats.

I understand and agree to each of the standards of behavioral listed above and understand that a failure to abide by these expectations may result in actions at the discretion of the WeCOACH Director of Events and/or the CEO.

By reading this statement, I understand that I am held responsible for my actions while attending the virtual WeCOACH Academy event.