

EXPLORE A FUTURE IN TENNIS COACHING

USTA Coaching Serving All: Aspiring Coaches powered by WeCOACH is an 8-month leadership and tennis coaching development experience created by USTA Coaching and WeCOACH to help college-age, women student-athletes build the confidence, skills and connections needed to enter the tennis coaching profession.

What You'll Gain

- Confidence and identity as a future coach and leader
- Foundational coaching knowledge and player-centered teaching approaches
- Leadership and communication skills
- Mentorship from experienced women coaches and industry leaders
- A national network of peers and coaching professionals
- Insight into coaching careers and certification pathways

Who Should Apply

Applicants should:

- Be a sophomore, junior, senior, graduate student or graduate assistant competing in an NCAA, NAIA or Junior/Community College varsity tennis program
- Identify as a woman
- Be (or become) Safe Play approved

What Participants Receive

- Free USTA Coaching package
- Free WeCOACH membership
- USTA Coaching gear and welcome package
- Access to mentorship, education and national coaching network

Participants will cover their travel to Orlando. Lodging, meals and programming during the event are covered by USTA Coaching. Limited grants are available.

Program Commitment

- 8-month cohort experience
- Five virtual sessions
(May, July, September, November, January)
- In-person event on December 12-14, 2026 in Orlando, FL

Questions? Contact Megan Rose megan.rose@usta.com

Apply Now

USTACoaching.com

SERVE YOUR PASSION. LEAD THE GAME.